President Adams asked Manager Lowe to explain capital improvement projects and limited speakers to five minutes each.

Manager Lowe explained that capital improvement projects are projects that cost $5,000 or more and last for at least a year.

Bruce Yannatta: Gave an explanation of the recreation committee.

Diane Lippert: Ideas needed for recreation committee.

Bev Luther: Supervised day camp in summer for kids.

Al Schultz: Bike/walking path.

Marge Torongo: Tisdale ski trail.

Sue Jock: Recreation committee.

Tim Roache: President of Gosling/Czubak Engineering Firm, Village Engineer.

Kurtis Norton: Parking for businesses.

Erine Adams: Low ground water run-off problems.

Linda Mesler: Sidewalk from bridge to Hilltop.

Larry Thornton: Sidewalks.

Jason Couturier: Owner of Cindy Lou Zoo, summer camp for kids.

Bev Luther: Dog park, dog clean-up stations in parks.

Jon Suvada: Skate park, walking trail, basketball court, pool, village resident discount at CRAF Center.

Sue Jock: Metro Court, RMRA's plan to work on one tennis court and one full-size basketball court.

Joan Murphy: Basketball courts.

Kurtis Norton: Signage into/out of Village on the ATV trail, keeping a groomed trail through Village.

Bev Luther: Snowmobile trails.

Kathy Murphy: Village used to put maps on the corner of South Street with trail markings.

Doug Hodges: Village should seize the opportunity of having the Memorial in Roscommon, attracts a lot of visitors.

Jason Couturier: Signs on 75.

Mary Lou Bryce: Hotel with a pool.

President Adams: Farm market; changing the atmosphere in the community; Roscommon, Ireland.

Joan Murphy: Person from Roscommon, Ireland that used to come for St. Patrick's Day.

Bev Luther: Roscommon, Ireland on website.

Don Dixon: Has been to Roscommon, Ireland, a sign in English and Gaelic.

Carol Garlo: Roscommon, Michigan is only Roscommon in the United States.

Don Dixon: St. Patrick's Day in Grayling, concert at art gallery, busy downtown.

Al Schultz: Quiet Water Symposium at MSU. Get into shows downstate to show what we are.

Brian Quinlan: Marketing of Roscommon, festival weekends. Symposium is a great idea.

Carey Grewe: Safety issue walking up to Hilltop. Safety issue on Cherven and Main.

Brian Quinlan: Village budget for marketing.

Manager Lowe: Explained that Village is not allowed to spend money on marketing.

President Adams: Marketing handled by Chamber, DDA, EDC.

Connie Allen: All three chambers have to work together in order to get grants, went to the Novi show with local information, put a billboard at Cabelas.

President Adams: Marketing Committee, Doug Hodges presented the DDA a check from Firemen's Memorial.

Connie Allen: Already received phone calls for next year's event dates, if anyone has any events, she will put them on the website and in brochures.

Scott Marshall: Owner of the Roscommon County Weekly, started the paper to promote events. Too many different groups not seeing eye-to-eye. Campground on the M-18 property, DNR is giving out grants for campgrounds.

Mike Butler: There is a definite ORV path out of the village, it's just not advertised.

Diane Lippert: Congratulations to the DPW for being awarded "Best Tasting Water in Michigan" again.

Manager Lowe: Lots of great ideas, would like people to think "out of the box".

Mike Butler: Microbrewery.

Jim Anderson: President of the DDA. State prohibits Villages from budgeting money for marketing, but not the DDA; however, they are limited to spending in the DDA district. Recited some of DDA's past projects.

Doug Hodges: Importance of different groups working together.

Bob Edwards: Go to Federal government and talk them into stocking our river with Grayling.

Wife wants to start a Woman's Club, Train Day Festival in town.

Brian Quinlan: Tax amnesty for new businesses.

Carl Jock: Agrees with Brian.

Carey Grewe: River Festival.

Mary Lou Bryce: Timing of River Fest.

Ron Alden: When the Tri-City Airport was struggling, they turned one runway into a drag strip. We have lots of land, turn into a racetrack and snowmobile racetrack.

Bev Luther: Bring back rodeo at fair.

Kurtis Norton: Open up a large airport.

Marge Torongo: Get more young people involved.

Carey Grewe: Snowmobile racing circuit.

Brian Quinlan: Lodging.

Bev Luther: REI store and a canoe builder on the M-18 property.

President Adams: Easy to become blind to things that need to be tended to. Sidewalk repairs.

Don Dixon: Snow trails, cross-country ski trails, attract a younger population.

Carol Garlo: Flowers in the village are wonderful.

Meeting adjourned at 8:15 PM.
